University of Bergen Staff Mobility Week

The University of Bergen hereby announces its second Staff Mobility Week, to take place in Bergen during the week 6-10 June 2011. This year we will offer a program with four tracks for administrative university staff working with:

1. Research (project acquisition and administration)
2. Human resources and equal rights
3. University libraries
4. Student mobility and international relations in higher education

The application deadline is March 1st 2011.

We can welcome approximately 40 participants in total, 10 persons in each track.

Please forward this email to the relevant departments at your university.

More information and programme updates are to be found on this website:
