- 2) Your LA will be sent to the related coordinators at DPU and be confirmed by the department as well.
- 3) After the approval from the department your confirmed documents and acceptance/invitation letter will be posted to the address of International Relations Office at your University.

VISA

Before leaving for Türkiye, exchange students should pick their letters of acceptance and obtain a multi-entry student visa from the nearest Turkish Consulate.

ACCOMODATION

There is a wide range of accommodation options for students: staying in public or private dormitories with their modern buildings including catering facilities, bathrooms in each room; and in hostels, furnished rooms or shared-flats with other students.

At main campus there is a private dormitory which offers a warm and friendly service. The dormitory is newly constructed; it has wireless internet facility and offers breakfast and dinner for students.

Besides the main dormitory students can reside in other part of the city in the state owned dormitory that contains 1000 girl-student rooms and 1000 boy-student rooms.
